

Bolling Social Sciences Center

- Located in Richmond, IN
- Owner: Earlham College
- 65,700 s.f. new construction
- Project Description: The new Bolling Center houses social sciences and interdisciplinary studies. The design, which provides new spaces for integration of curriculum, embodies Earlham's commitment to innovation in teaching and learning. The facility consists of three stories with a partial lower floor, lecture and classrooms, computer and psychology labs, seminar rooms, conference rooms, offices and support spaces. The building is located close to the main entry of the campus and is a central point for extending the relationships between the college and the Richmond community.

Odle McGuire Shook