

Indiana University School of Law Library

- Located in Bloomington, IN
- Owner: Indiana University
- 60,000 s.f. construction, 92,000 s.f. renovation
- Project Description: IU Law Library underwent an expansion and upgrade that was completed in two phases. Phase I consisted of an addition including five floors that dovetail with the existing structure and overlap it at the upper levels. Phase II included a renovation to make narrow class and lecture rooms more versatile and to provide for faculty offices. OMS worked with Indiana University to complete programming, architecture and interiors for the project.

