

Robert D. Orr Classroom Building

- Located in Evansville, IN
- Owner: University of Southern Indiana
- 60,000 square foot new construction
- Project Description: Multi-story building with a main lobby that is dominated by a double stair that rises through the three-story space. Security and information desk, building campus directories, and eating area are located within the main lobby. First floor is comprised of the lobby and student service offices which include Admissions, Financial Aid, Counseling Center, Office of Placement, Continuing Education, Community Resources, and the Registrar's Office. Second floor contains 18 classrooms of four different sizes. Third floor houses offices for the Division of Business, five computer labs, faculty offices, and classroom. Storage and mechanical systems are located in the basement.

